THOUGHT HE FOUND MISSING ARNOLD GIRL

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 29.—For a few hours last night a Rochester man thought he had found Dorothy Arnold, the wealthy New York girl who disappeared two years ago. Remarks made by an attractive young woman he met in a boarding house led him to visit a newspaper office in quest of photographs of the missing heiress. The resemblance, he thought, was perfect, so he immediately rushed to a telephone and called up the Arnolds in New York. "I have found your daughter," he told Mrs. Arnold.

But when he described the girl the color of her eyes was wrong and the resemblance failed in other particulars.

Mrs. Arnold agreed to pay the telephone tolls of $12.50.
